LENTEN SERVICES

1882.

LENT, 1882.

DEAR MEMBERS OF CHRIST'S CHURCH:

Hear the call of Christ's example to walk with him daily in the resistance of temptation and the discovery of duty. Forty days like forty steps lead you to share more deeply in the Lord's dying and rising again. Come near, then, and desire of God that utter self-abandonment and cleanness from secret and open sin which Christ has made possible. Trust your God and Saviour by casting down the barriers of personal vanity, and, meekly receiving the thrusts of the Spirit's sword, allow self to be slain, that Christ may live in you. Let your heart's desire include the salvation of your fellow creatures, remembering your liability to hinder and your power to help them by word and example.

The Lenten assembly is a school for the sons and daughters of God to train one another as children of one family, where one is taught of all. The educating power of the Church is in a face to face walk as brothers and sisters, in love unfeigned. If any is weak, here he may find the strong. If any is overtaken in a fault, he is restored in the spirit of meekness. If any work is to be done, a hundred shoulders are put to the wheel. Let us measure our nearness to God by the drawing of our hearts to one another in these Lenten prayers. God the Father show you His will. God the Son forgive your sins. God the Holy Ghost grant you to devise liberal things, for by liberal things you shall stand.

Your Friend and Rector,

W. F. C. MORSELL.

LENTEN DUTIES.

FASTING.—Christ fasted. That is enough for us. He fasted from daily food as well as general self-gratification. By so doing Christ showed that his true meat was to perform the will of God, and his body became tuned like a harp to God's touch. If the body does not obey God's motions, it will be cast away like a discordant musical instrument. We must fast to show the world how we can live by the hidden manna, and avoid the gratification of the senses, that our members may be instruments of righteousness.

PRAYER.—Fasting is but preparing a way for Christ to walk in through our bodies. In Prayer we announce to the Lord that his passage is cleared from all the underbrush of our petty wishes, and all the stumbling stones of rebellious pride. Fasting without Prayer is an empty highway. Frequent Prayer invites the Master to fulfil His promise. "Lo! I am with you alway; even unto the end of the world."

RULES FOR CHURCH ATTENDANCE.

1.—Come to Church on time—neither too early nor too late.

2.—Go to your pew at once and pray for God's blessing, so that no disturbing thoughts get possession of you.

3.—In God's house try to lose all sense of self, and forget everything except the Lord's presence.

4.—Go home with God's word uppermost, and avoid either speaking or listening to idle words.

5.—At home, go by yourself at once and pray God to seal all good impressions with His Holy Spirit.

LENTEN SERVICES.

1885.

Jesus, in Thy goodness aid us,
In the strife our sins has made us,
Give us, Lord, Thy victory.
So our daily lives preparing,
That, Thine endless glory sharing,
We may wear the crown with Thee.

THE RECTORY, 1513 Spring Garden St.

DEAR BRETHREN:

Another sweet Lenten season, with its special call to penitence and prayer, is at hand.

The return of its sacred obligations should again press home to every heart this practical question:—

"How can I so 'mortify the flesh with the lusts thereof,' that each day will bring me more and more into that perfect oneness with the Master, that His resurrection on Easter morn, will be the earnest of my own?"

That God will help you to its successful solution is the fervent prayer of

Your Affectionate Pastor,

B. B. KILLIKELLY.

Lord, we beseech Thee, grant Thy people grace to withstand the temptations of the world, the flesh and the devil; and with pure hearts and minds to follow Thee, the only God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

SPRING GARDEN ST.,
BELOW BROAD.

"Now are the days of humble prayer
When consciences to God lie bare,
And mercy most delights to spare.
Oh! hearken when we cry,
Chastise us with Thy fear;
Yet, Father! in the multitude
Of Thy compassion, hear!"

The Rectory,
1513 Spring Garden St.

My Dear Brethren:

Once again does God vouchsafe to sound in our ears the Lenten call to fast and pray.

Many who heard it with us last year, have since then received yet another summons from on high.

O! Shall not we, who are left to linger a little longer, hasten to heed that call, and so be indeed ready to obey this summons?

Yours, Affectionately,

B. B. Killikelly.

Give me grace, O blessed Jesus, Saviour of mankind, to live each day less and less for myself, and more and more to Thee.

O Lord, from whom all good things do come; Grant to us, Thy humble servants, that by Thy holy inspiration we may think those things that are good, and by Thy merciful guiding may perform the same; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.
